Since the year 1838 the HOME has afforded shelter to 4,000 Young Women of good character, from all parts of Ireland. Without any endowment, depending solely on Christian benevolence, it has been blessed of God to this day. It has taken those 4,000 helpless ones out of want and temptation! It has instructed them carefully and usefully, while in the Institution! It has taught them to look prayerfully to look up to the true Saviour! And it has placed them in Protestant families to earn honest bread.

The Committee feel confident that the Christian public only require to be aware of the above facts to ensure a hearty support to an Institution which God has so graciously blessed in its efforts to do all that humanity can be done to counteract the deadly and insidious system that is ever at work at the door of Mendicity. Poverty and Demoralization are twin brothers.

Contributions are earnestly solicited, and will be most thankfully received, by the Rev. C. B. Proby, D.D., and Mrs. Quaife, Honorary Secretaries; by any member of the Committee, by any Clergyman of the Established Church in Dublin; and by the Matron, at the Institution, 37, Charlemont-street, of whom also Collecting Cards (Weekly) may be had, and Boxes may be obtained.

THE ROYAL EXCHANGE ASSURANCE

Incorporated A.D. 1720, by Charter of George the First.

CHIEF OFFICE, ROYAL EXCHANGE, LONDON;

BRANCH, 39, PALL MALL.

FIRE, LIFE, and MARINE ASSURANCES may be effected with this Corporation on advantageous terms.

Life Assurances are granted with or without participation in profits; in the latter case at very moderate rates.

The Reversionary Bonus has averaged 1 4s per cent. per annum on the sum assured, or 25 per cent. upon the Premiums paid. It is believed that the Bonus will be declared at the ensuing division in the public the accommodation of local agencies, has maintained during the same period a rate of Bonus equal to this.

Divisions of Profit will take place EVERY FIVE YEARS.

The undoubted security afforded by the union of the different branches, are spread over a larger amount of business than that transacted by any other office. The charge upon each Policy is therefore proportionately small, and the Assured participate in the profits of the Bonus which has been declared, and to afford a probability that a similar rate will be sustained at future divisions.

This Corporation affords to the assured a general participation in profits, the exemption from liability to Partnership; a rate of Bonus equal to the average returns of Mutual Societies, with the guarantee of a large invested Capital (both the advantages of Proprietary Offices), and the Security of a Fund which for ages have been tested by the experience of NEARLY A CENTURY AND A HALF.

£15,000 on the same life. In this arrangement the Directors have in view the convenience of persons who desire to insure for large sums, but who object to the trouble of appointing and medical examination at successive offices.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

IN CASE OF DEATH occurring during the THIRTY DAYS allowed for payment of a Life Premium, and before such payment has been made, the Corporation hold themselves liable under the terms of the Policy, as if the Premium had been duly paid on or before the thirtieth day from that upon which it became due.

MONEY MARKET AND COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE.

(WRITTEN SPECIALLY FOR THE IRISH TIMES.)

Dublin, Saturday Evening.

When are we to be done raising loans? And, in the present instance, how are they to be raised? The first question cannot be easily answered. What with our increasing Funds and our increased income tax, we are unable, if any sudden emergency arises, to do aught than appeal to our money lenders and increase the national debt year after year. Difficult it may now be, and is, for a Chancellor of the Exchequer to unfold his budget in a light which will suit the visions of all; but still more hazardous will the attempt be with future Chancellors, when they come to deal with the interest on the funded debt, if the principal be every year increased as it is now promising to be. The Commissioners appointed to inquire into the state of our defences, recommend the work to be carried out, which will involve an expenditure of nearly twelve millions, and although this outlay will extend over a period of four years, still there seems but little doubt, but that we must have a supply budget.

Other States than our own require the "sinews of war," but with these we have not so much concern. Sardinia requires money of course, but then she will borrow her own loans; and if our capitalists are satisfied between them will the question be. What we have to look to is the amount of money which will thus be absorbed, a circumstance which must considerably affect the money market, and the very rumours of which are quite enough to induce caution on the part of lenders, and thus in a measure limit the supply. Russia is also in the market, and, as a matter of course, that market is London, but the particulars of the loans, and the terms upon which they are launched are not yet known, unless favourable won't be taken up, they will withdraw money from other securities, and as such we will be bound to trace their effects. But the English loan we must more particularly regard, because it will not only absorb money like foreign loans, but if raised by the resction of consols, for instance, it will have a considerable effect upon the present value of that security. Some say the loan will be raised on the security of annuities terminable in twenty-five years, while others say it will be by a fresh creation of 3¼ per cent. consols. This latter form would certainly be more acceptable to speculators, but it is likely that all will subscribe for a loan if that stock would be under the current market rates to the extent of probably 15s. or 20s. per cent. Consols would likely find their level with that of the new creation. To loans, and especially to English ones, and the modes of raising them, shareholders must not, therefore, be indifferent.

During the past week there was but little change in the character of the Money Market; but full rates were firmly maintained, and greater caution and, in consequence, a restricted supply was indicated by the issuance of the loan to which we have just alluded. Within the last few days all accounts agree in stating that the demand for accommodation has increased. This has been borne out by even the Bank of England reserve which up to last Wednesday evening. It is, however, an extremely favourable one, and the Treasury balances have considerably increased, as is usual towards this time, and previous to the payment of the dividends on Consols. The private deposits have also increased, and the position of the Bank is thus considerably strengthened, as evidenced by the large increase in the reserve of £531,612. The bullion has decreased by £331,467, while £676,427 have been added to the public deposits, and £320,518 to the private ones. The "other" account is the only account which shows a decrease, it is to the extent of £323,102.

The arrival and shipments of specie were on a more extensive scale this week, and the next shipment to the East is expected to be very heavy ones. The imports of specie have been principally from the West Indies and Australia, and, indeed, some of the steamers from the latter, for Southampton, the following have sailed:—Mance Pole, £667 17 4d; Owen Glendower, out 80 days, with £6,000; Prince of Denmark, out 76 days, with £6,000; Prince of Wales, out 80 days, £182,000; Maid of Judah, out 83 days, with £134,000; Eagle, out 86 days, with £133,000.

The accounts from Australia are still very unsatisfactory, and it appears evident that it will take some time before trade can receive a healthy tone. Several houses are reported as having suspended payment, and the amount is stated as nearly half a million in the aggregate; the quarter of which will likely fall upon English houses.

The inactivity in the Stock markets during the past week has been very great indeed, and were it not so, the effect produced by the rumors of loans would have been marked. The markets however, derived some support from the non-intervention principle enunciated by Ministers and by the maintenance of firm prices in Paris. In the Dublin Market also, there was a decided absence of business, and although the Share markets were more active than Funds, they were, nevertheless, comparatively dull. In to-day's market business was very slack both in Stocks and Shares. No dealings in Local or Railway Debentures; Banking Shares were without much alteration; Hibernians were steady, at 5s advance; Nationals were done at the former price, but offered; Royals were inquired for; Atlantics were better to-day, in consequence of the published letter from the secretary of the Company, in reference to the intention of the direction not to raise Preference Shares; a rise of 5s 2d appears but there were sellers at the price. City of Dublin Steam, and Dublin and Glasgow were inquired for. In Mining Shares there might have been large transactions if the tone of the market had been better as dealers appeared in nearly all classes of Mining securities; there were offers to sell Barravore; Caryaforis would have been purchased at a slight reduction; Connoree were done at a reduction, but buyers; of Crookhaven there were sellers; buyers of General Mines at 4d, sellers at a slight advance; for Mining Company of Ireland 7s. 6d. per share advance was offered; sellers at 13s. In Railway Shares there was no important change; Great Southerns have risen 5s. per cent., and are steady; the 4½ per cent. Preference Shares were expressed as worth a trifle of a similar amount; Midlands are also in better demand; in other shares there are no changes worthy of note; Belfast and Northern Counties, Bandons, Cork and Passages, Limericks and Kilkennys are on sale; Wicklows, Dundalks, and Enniskillens, and Drogheda are steady; Grand Canal Stock is still on sale, and a large margin between buyers and sellers.

At the half-yearly meeting of the proprietors of Bank Stock, held on Wednesday, a dividend was declared of 4½ per cent., and £6,500 was carried to the next account.

A special general meeting of the proprietors of the Atlantic Steam Company, will be held on Wednesday in London, to raise additional capital, and as it was originally stated, by means of Preference Shares, but the letter of Mr. Boate, to which we have referred to, evidently shows that the Directors have dreaded the opposition which has been created by the circular issued by Mr. Kirwan, as chairman of the Dublin Committe, which we give in extracts, and which we understand has been the means of gaining almost universal support. We sincerely trust that the energy of the Irish Committee will be rewarded with complete success; and now that they have put forth their power, that they will, if possible, turn it to even still better advantage, and by continuous and united exertions, strive to obtain the removal of the management to Ireland, and then prevent the gross mismanagement, and stop the reckless conduct of those some of whom with scarcely any stake in the company received emoluments, and are now trying by an additional creation of capital to the English element. The Atlantic Company ought to be a National one—it was postponed in Ireland, and in Ireland the management must be if the undertaking is intended to benefit either the country or the shareholders. If any advantage has been gained by the present move, we trust to see it firmly followed up.

The following is the circular to the shareholders:—

ATLANTIC ROYAL MAIL STEAM NAVIGATION COMPANY LIMITED

Gentlemen—An extraordinary general meeting of this company has been summoned to meet in London, on the 20th instant, to give the directors the power of creating Preference Shares, and largely increasing the borrowing powers of the company—measures that may be productive of the most disastrous consequences to you, as additional shareholders, and may irretrievably ruin your property. To if possible avert any evil results which might flow from the uncontrolled exercise of the extensive powers now sought to be obtained by the directors, it is absolutely necessary to closely watch the proceedings at the meeting, in order to protect the interests of the Irish shareholders. It is therefore, essential—in fact of vital importance that these proprietors who have not already done so should at once pay up any calls which may be due on their shares, and thus qualify themselves to vote on the highly important questions to be submitted to the meeting, the decisions on which will not only deeply affect their own interests as shareholders, but the welfare of this great national undertaking. You are, therefore, most earnestly requested to lose not a moment in signing and returning the proxy forms enclosed to you. as all proxies must be in Dublin on Thursday next, that they may be lodged in the London office on Friday next at latest, otherwise they will not be available.—I remain, gentlemen, your obedient servant, DENIS KEENAN.

The following vessels sailed for foreign ports:—Foyle, for Jersey; Irene, for Quebec; Ida, for Havana; Agnes Anderson, for Quebec.

At the Swansea ticketing, on Tuesday, the 12th June, 3,075 tons of copper ore were sold, which realised £21,947. Of the amount sold, Ireland contributed 1,250 tons—viz., 733 tons from Berehaven, which brought £8,410; and 517 tons from Knockmahon, which produced £5,587 4s. 6d.

The Mining Journal states that on Tuesday, when the usual monthly meeting of the smelters took place, it was resolved to maintain the present rates for copper. The following are its remarks upon the other metals:—

IRON.—There appears to be rather more doing in rails, and ironmasters are less inclined to concede in price. Merchant bars in fair demand, at limits slightly below current quotations. Staffordshire descriptions maintain previous rates. Swedish bars are dull of sale. Scotch pigs remain tolerably steady, at 50s. 3d. to 50s. 6d., warrants; shipping, 49s. to 53s., No. 1., g.m.b., f. o. b., in Glasgow.

LEAD.—The shipping demand is inactive, sellers, however, are indisposed to make further concessions. English pig of soft quality sold at £21 10s.; sheets, £22 10s.; shot, £24 15s.; red lead, £23 15s.

SPELTER.—Sales have been effected at higher prices, and the market assumes a firmer tone. Sellers now quote £20 10s.; buyers 5s. per ton less.

TIN.—No change has taken place in the position of this metal. Sellers continue to exhibit firmness, and are more inclined to hold for the present, higher prices being anticipated at the Dutch sale. Sales of small quantities of Banca have been made at 136s.; Straits, £129 10s.

TIN-PLATES.—Manufacturers quote 25s. to 25s. 6d. for IC coke; inferior brands at 24s. 6d. per box.

STEEL AND QUICKSILVER.—No new feature to report.

The Mining market during the past week is described as having been especially active in London, principally in speculative shares, the principal amount of business having been in Rosewarne.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

(Times City Article.)

Friday Evening.

The English Funds opened very heavily this morning, and showed additional weakness during the day, at the close, however, there was a slightly firmer tone. The market was affected mainly by the expectation of the Russian loan, and also of the home loan for the fortifications. Exchequer bills experienced a further fall of 2s, and closed at par to 4s premium. There was more demand for discount to-day, and the applications at the bank were on a larger scale. In the open market the rate is slightly under 4 per cent. In the Stock Exchange, owing to the half monthly foreign settlement, loans were in request at 4½per cent. In the foreign exchange this afternoon, there was an important fall in the rates on Vienna and Trieste, the movement showing increased confidence in the financial position of Austria, about £339,000 in fine gold was taken to the Bank to-day.

(Daily News' City Article.)

Friday Evening.

The Funds to-day were again flat, rumours of foreign loans and the continuance of unseasonable weather combine to produce an unfavorable impression. Consols were done in the forenoon at 93¼, and the final quotations of consols were nearly the same as those of yesterday. There was a brisk demand for money at 4 per cent. for the best bills, and the applications at the Bank were to a fair extent.

LONDON CORN MARKET—FRIDAY, JUNE 15.

The arrivals of English and foreign wheat are good; also of foreign oats; of other English grain, small; and very large of foreign barley.

The English wheat left over from Monday has met a slow sale at that day's prices, some portion remaining unsold at a late hour. Foreign was held very firmly at fully Monday's prices, but the amount of business transacted was limited.

KINGSBRIDGE AND LEA.

LIVERPOOL PRODUCE MARKET, JUNE 16.—Sugar market quiet. Prices firm; 1,140 bags, and middling Bengal, sold at 14s. Lindseed not so much in demand, Rapeseed fully as dear; brown Bombay sold at 57s.

LONDON PRODUCE MARKET, JUNE 16.—Nothing new to report in Mincing-lane to-day. Sugar market has fully recovered the decline which took place in the early part of the week. Coffee firm; tea inactive; rice very firm; saltpetre—no change. Little doing; tallow good; 52s 3d on spot; 52s month; 52s last three months.

NEWCASTLE COAL MARKET, JUNE 16.—Moderate supply of farmers' wheat, for which high rates were asked at the commencement of business, but rates of this day week could not be exceeded. In south country and foreign parcels scarcely anything doing, millers being heavily stocked, and the favourable change in the weather stops speculative purchases. Flour, slow sale, but very firm; barley quiet; oats difficult to quote; beans and peas, no change.

DROGHEDA CORN MARKET, JUNE 16.—There was a very small show of farmers' grain at market to-day, which met a steady demand at late rates. White wheat, 31s to 32s 6d; red, 29s 6d to 31s; white oats, 14s 6d to 15s 6d; black, 13s 6d to 14s.

SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR GARIBALDI.—Every friend of Italian freedom—and who in this country is not?—must see with inexpressible gratification the progress which the subscription set on foot among the middle classes for Garibaldi is making in all parts of the country. But, in order to render a Garibaldi subscription truly national, it ought to be brought within the reach and the means of the masses. With this view, we would not only suggest, but earnestly urge, that subscription-lists should be opened in all the public-houses in the metropolis, and throughout the country, so as that everyone who admires the illustrious man who is the impersonation of Italian liberty, should have an opportunity of expressing, by contributing such a sum, however small, as he can afford, his attachment to the cause and his admiration of the greatest hero of the age.—"Morning Advertiser."

GARIBALDI.—A set of Garibaldi's is quoted by the papers:—"I came to Sicily, where I beat an army without a general; I am now going to Rome, to beat a general without an army." Unless he makes haste he will find no general. Lamoriciere is represented as about to throw up his commission in disgust. He has already sent back to France his wife and family.

GREAT FRENCH CATTLE SHOW.—A letter from Paris describes the cattle show which is to be opened to the public to-morrow. The collection of live stock from the 86 departments of France is the most complete that was ever witnessed. English farmers and graziers who can manage the run over to Paris will have a rich treat. The distinguishing feature of the present exhibition is the admission, to use the language of the programme, of the "chevaline asinine et muline" species, as well as the "bovine, ovine, and porcine." The horse show is to my fancy the most interesting part of the exhibition. Without wishing for a moment to question the infinite superiority of the English hunter and race-horse, which Frenchmen are the first to acknowledge, I may safely say that the most fastidious judge of horseflesh that ever galloped in Leicestershire may now see in the Champs Elysees types of hacks, unlike anything commonly seen in England which would delight his eye. The interior of the building (the ground floor of it at least) is entirely devoted to the bovine species. The garden, fountains, and miniature lake which were made for the flower show remain undisturbed, but around them are three double rows of stalls, all occupied by bulls, cows, and calves, the total number of which cannot be less than 1,000.

[CIVIL SERVICE ESTIMATES.—The seventh division of the civil service estimates for 1860, showing the estimates for miscellaneous, special, and temporary objects, was issued on Friday. The total estimate amounts to £732,001. This sum is made by a number of smaller sums. The Rangoon (late Gibraltar) telegraph is to cost £7,000, the Westminster-bridge approaches £80,000; the merchant seamen's fund, pensions, &c., £58,700; the local loans on shipping under treaties of reciprocity £200,000, the Westminster-bridge works £38,170; temporary commission £37,490. Treasury chests and freight of specie, &c., £23,443; Patent Office salaries, &c., £36,229. There are many other items besides these—49 in all—but most of them are comparatively unimportant in amount. On the whole, there is a decrease in the total amount of the estimates of £263,874.

LORD BROUGHAM.—The rumour that Lord Brougham was engaged in the composition of a complete treatise on the British Constitution turns out to be correct. It will, we understand, be published during the ensuing winter by Messrs. Griffith and Co.—Or itic.

A deputation composed of the most distinguished Sicilians is expected in Paris in a very few days. The object is to address some observations to the Emperor on the state of the country. Several of the deputies belong to the ancient nobility of Sicily; the others are merchants and landed proprietors.

THE OUTRAGE AT SOYOOD.—The Committee of the Evangelical Alliance have received the following letter:—

"Foreign Office, June 9, 1860.

"SIR,—I am directed by Lord John Russell to inform you, with reference to my letter of the 29th March, that the Pope addressed a viniorial letter on the 30th May to the Governor of the Brooss, directing him to arrest and punish the persons who committed the outrages complained of against the Greek Protestant priest at Soyood and his family, and to use his best exertions to prevent the repetition of such disgraceful proceedings.—I am, sir, your most obedient and humble servant, (Signed) "H. HAMMOND.

"Sir Culling Eardley, Bart., &c."

The Bishop of Brooss, in Asia Minor, arrested and manacled with his own hands the priest (Greek) of Soyood. He conveyed him to the Asiatic coast, and put him on board a ship, bound for Smyrna, on his route confined. The agency of the British Consul at Brooss offered the priest a free conveyance and release. The case was represented to Lord John Russell by deputation convened by the British and Foreign Bible Society, and a remonstrance addressed to the English and Turkish Governments is contained in the foregoing letter.

DUBLIN, MONDAY, JUNE 18.

BADEN, for three days, has been the City of Kings All the lesser potentates flutter around the French Emperor as parroquets in presence of the rattlesnake. All are fascinated, but only one is destined to be destroyed. Which is it? Much would be given to ascertain what passed in that brief three-quarters of an hour in which the Regent of Prussia and Louis Napoleon met tete a tete in the Ville Stephene. The Emperor is his known Prime Minister and his own confidant. He trusts much to his powers of persuasion, and has some reason to be proud of his own diplomacy. Much was done at Villafranca, much may have been agreed on at Baden. What has really passed between the Regent and Emperor will be known only through the progress of events. Reports of the conference will, indeed, be given, but of the exoteric kind, and intended for the uninitiated. Secret diplomacy has taken the place of the open discussions of bygone conferences. Men will suspect that more has passed than meets the light, and, in the present state of Europe, suspicion produces as great effects as certainty.

When the hawk swoops over the corn fields the sparrows crowd and twitter together, gaining courage from numbers. So, the Kings of Saxony, Hanover, Wurtemberg, Bavaria, the Dukes of Coburg Gotha, and Baden, all crowd round Prussia in presence of the Emperor. A preliminary conference of these German Princes was held on Friday, and it is said that agreeable unanimity was manifested on all questions referring to the relations of foreign Powers. The foreign Powers must mean only Russia and France, for Austria claims to be German, and England has sacrificed much for Germany. Still, this meeting of crowned heads is something ominous. We have read of "The Confederation of the Rhine," and Louis Napoleon has a passion for confederations. As many crowned heads swarmed about the great Napoleon prior to that Peace of Tilsit, which kept Europe in a blaze for many a year.

The Prince Regent of Prussia will be careful how he entrusts his suspicions again to paper, for there are traitors either in his Court or ours who can furnish Louis Napoleon with copies of the most private correspondence. Yet, from Prussia alone can be derived full information respecting the Imperial proposals. The "conference" of smaller potentates may be honoured with proposals for commercial treaties, with assurance of the peaceful intentions of France, and with a interchange of "ideas;" but that three quarters of an hour in the Villa Stephene settled all. Momentous consequences hang upon that little point of time. For Prussia is our only Protestant ally on the Continent, and if she yields to the incantations of the charmer, we may have once again to oppose a combination of all the military despotisms of Europe.

"I HAVE known cases where the Irish poor when "sick have been carted to the boundaries of a parish, "and dropped just outside the parish, in order to "evade relieving them." That is the evidence of Mr. Ashley Maples, clerk of the Spalding Union. The words, of themselves, without comment of ours, tell a tale of cold-blooded cruelty which few believed to exist in England. The guardians who directed such an act ought to have been negro drivers in Florida, or police in the service of the King of Naples. There is a doubt, it would appear, respecting the legality of these deportations, but the guardians of the Spalding Union did not feel justified in spending the parish funds in law expenses to test the matter. The perpetrators, therefore, have escaped with impunity, and are probably still employed in the Christ at being enabled to report so favorably to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty on the thoroughly efficient state of the division. The ships were also complimented on their steadiness, and thus concluded one of the most satisfactory inspections that perhaps has been ever made in the annals of the corps.

Captain Saunders's 1 Battery of Royal Horse Artillery arrived at head-quarters, Woolwich, from Norwich, was inspected on Woolwich-common on Friday, by Colonel de Lisle, C.B., in the absence of Colonel Lake, C.B., who was called a few weeks ago, on parade, with a sudden, and seemingly severe attack of paralysis, which it is feared will incapacitate him for further service. The troop, whose guns have been exchanged for the Armstrong, went through a course of offensive and defensive movements, and a general round of field manœuvres, and acquitted themselves with marked satisfaction.

We have much pleasure in stating that Colonel Sir Alfred Horsford, K.C.B., will be the new Deputy Adjutant-General in succession to Major-General Forster. The appointment is an excellent one. Sir Alfred has well earned by substantial service; no one is more fitted to discharge the duty, and the officers of the army will not feel less pleasure in transacting business with one of the most accomplished and deservedly popular members of their profession.—Army and Navy Gazette.

A general court-martial assembled at Chatham garrison, 10 a.m. on Friday, for the trial of Captain Henry George Bragge, commanding the 33d company of Royal Engineers at Brompton Barracks. The following were the charges on which the prisoner was arraigned:—"First, for conduct unbecoming an officer, and to the prejudice of good order and military discipline in the following cases:—1. For having left Brompton Barracks, on the 21st of May, 1860, knowingly sent in the morning state of the 33rd Company of Royal Engineers, then under his command, addressed to Colonel Sandham, his commanding officer, and also some passes for the men on of his company, as well as application for leave for himself, falsely signed with their names, the false signatures attached to the above documents having been affixed by Lieutenant Edward Harman, Royal Engineers, by Captain Savage's directions. 2. For having at the same place failed to attend at the issue of bread at 7 o'clock, on the 21st of May, which it was his duty to have done as captain on duty for the week. 3. For having at the same place failed to attend at the quarter to 10, parade on the 21st of May, which parade it was his duty to have attended as captain on duty for the week. Secondly, for conduct unbecoming the character of an officer and gentleman, and to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, in having at the same place, falsely stated to Lieutenant Ross, Royal Engineers, of the 21st of May, on two occasions, when questioned by that officer as to his absence from duty, as specified in the second instance of the two first charges, that he did not know that he was on duty as captain of the week, he having been warned on the previous days on two different occasions, that he was for duty as captain during the week, commencing 21st of May, and his name having also appeared on the provisional day in regimental orders." The prisoner pleaded "Not guilty" to all the charges.

The case has not yet concluded.

THE INSURRECTION IN SICILY.

(FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.)

PALERMO, June 9, MORNING.—The last 24 hours have produced little or no change in the state of affairs, nor can there be possibly anything important or decisive till General Lafarina returns. What is the meaning of all this? Will there be any more battles? These are the topics which occupy and absorb public attention, but this is certainly not the time for political speculation, with the exception perhaps of the Telegrafo Office, which is the only place where the latest news is to be obtained.

It will be in the recollection of your readers that after the capitulation of the convent La Gancia the Neapolitan authorities began a system of flight and retreat which appeared very extraordinary to those who were not aware of their object. Not only were they withdrawn from their positions in the suburbs, but from the city itself, and the whole of the Neapolitan force was concentrated in the Royal Palace, a position which, from its extent and strength, was considered impregnable. Here they remained for a few days, and then suddenly, at the dead of night, they commenced their retreat. The movement was carried out with the greatest secrecy, and the first intimation the people had of it was the appearance of prisoners and wounded. All their positions in the suburbs were evacuated, and the troops were concentrated in the city.
